Open Problems in Well-Quasi-Ordering

Neil Robertson (Ohio State)

This will be an expository talk on the open problems in well-quasi-ordering related to graph theory. Most of the problems and conjectures that will be discussed relate to the induced subgraph quasi-order. As there are graph and matroid minor interconnections, there should be considerable research movement over the next decade.