

MSc/PGDip International Management and Accounting For students entering in 2008

Awarding Institution:	The University of Reading
Teaching Institution:	The University of Reading Henley Business School
Programme Length:	12 months (9 months if dissertation is substituted by project and an additional optional module)
Date of specification:	October 2006
Programme Director:	Evelyn Fenton
Board of Studies:	Management MSc's
Accreditation:	None
Total number of credits required:	180

Summary of programme aims

The programme aims to provide a thorough postgraduate education in the field of international management, with a specialism in accounting and its international aspects. The programme is distinctive in its international flavour, with strong emphasis on international business themes relevant for analysing the dynamic global business challenges of the 21st century. The compulsory modules provide a critical understanding of current management theories and accounting practices. Students will develop a practical understanding of the application of theoretical concepts and they will learn to evaluate alternative theories and practices, and to make judgements on their applicability to complex and changing business situations.

Transferable skills

The programme requires a substantial amount of independent reading, research and study, and students are expected to take personal responsibility and show initiative in developing their knowledge and understanding of the field of study. In following this programme students will also have the opportunity to enhance and develop their skills relating to communication (oral and written), presentations, information handling, problem solving, team-working, and the use of information technology. Students will learn to work independently, under time pressures, and will learn to set priorities and manage their time in order to meet strict deadlines. Career planning, via choice of modules taken, will be an integral part of the programme.

Programme Content

Compulsory Modules		Credits	Level
MMM001	International Strategic Management	20	M
MMM006	Global Marketing Management	20	M
MMM022	Anglo-American Accounting	20	M
MMM048	Managing People and Organisations	20	M
MMM021	International Accounting	20	M
MMM025	Multinational Financial Reporting and Analysis	20	M
MMM023	Dissertation (incorporating Study Skills)	40	M
MMM026	Study Skills (credits incorporated in MMM023)	-

Optional Module (ONE of the following modules)*

MMM034	Corporate Social Responsibility	20	M
MMM031	Financial Management	20	M
MMM002	Understanding the Global Firm	20	M
MMM012	International Human Resource Management	20	M
MMM015	Research and Development in the Multinational Enterprise	20	M
MMM018	Leadership and Advanced Business Policy	20	M
MMM033	Business Management and European Integration	20	M
MMM045	Marketing and Consumer Society	20	M
MMM044	Supply Chain Management and Business Marketing	20	M
MMM042	Small Business Management and Entrepreneurship	20	M

* This list of optional modules may be subject to change. Further optional modules may be eligible at the discretion of the programme director

Students may choose to substitute MMM023 (Dissertation, 40 credits) with a project plus an additional optional module for completion of the degree programme in nine months as follows:

MMM030	Management Practice and Project (S)	20	M
choice	Any of the above optional modules (S)	20	M

Part-time/Modular arrangements

This programme is available on a part-time basis.

Progression requirements

Assessment of taught modules by May/June; re-sit failed modules in September; submit dissertation by the second Friday in September or by a month thereafter if there are re-sits.

Students wishing to proceed to a higher degree by research should normally have followed the 12 month programme and obtained an average of at least 60% in the modules and at least 60% in the dissertation.

Summary of teaching and assessment

Teaching is organised in modules. The delivery of material varies among the modules, especially in the proportion of time allocated to lectures, classes and seminars. All modules involve coursework, which takes a variety of forms reflecting the aims of the module. Final assessment of the modules typically involves a 2 hour examination and coursework (weights vary according to module). A dissertation supervisor is appointed for each student who chooses the dissertation module.

The University's taught postgraduate marks classification is as follows:

Mark Interpretation

70-100% Distinction

60-69% Merit

50-59% Good Standard (Pass)

Failing categories

40-49% Work below threshold standard

0-39% Unsatisfactory Work

To pass the MSc students must gain an average mark of 50 or more overall. In addition, the total credit value of all modules marked at 40-49% must not exceed 40 credits and no module mark must fall below 40. 50% or more in the dissertation is also required.

Students who gain an average mark of 70% or above, including a mark of 60% or more in the dissertation (if applicable) and no mark below 50% will be eligible for a Distinction. Those gaining a mark of 60%, including a mark of 50% or more in the dissertation (if applicable) may be eligible for a Merit pass.

A Postgraduate Diploma can be awarded to students who pass at least 120 credits of M level modules, of which at least 60 credits must be passed in compulsory modules.

Admission requirements

Entrants to this programme are normally required to have obtained a first degree equivalent to a British upper second class honours degree, which includes at least two modules in accounting. Applicants whose degree results are below the required level, or whose degree is from a university where the standard is not well known, will require GMAT 600. References are also taken into account. Acceptance is at the discretion of the Director of Studies.

Admissions Tutor: The Programme Director is responsible for admissions.

Support for students and their learning

University support for students and their learning falls into two categories. Learning support includes IT Services, which has several hundred computers and the University Library, which across its three sites holds over a million volumes, subscribes to around 4,000 current periodicals, has a range of electronic sources of information and houses the Student Access to Independent Learning (S@IL) computer-based teaching and learning facilities. There are language laboratory facilities both for those students studying on a language degree and for those taking modules offered by the Institution-wide Language Programme. Student guidance and welfare support is provided by Programme Directors, Tutors, the Careers Advisory Service, the University's Special Needs Advisor, Study Advisors, Hall Wardens and the Students' Union.

Career prospects

Students who have followed this programme are working in a wide range of industries and management functions. Industries include finance, manufacturing, retailing, advertising, consultancy, Civil Service, teaching and research. Graduates from this programme have found employment in many different types of firms from multinationals to small and medium enterprises.

Opportunities for study abroad or for placements

None

Educational aims of the programme

The programme provides a thorough postgraduate training in international management. With an emphasis on theory and practice it aims to produce graduates capable of using their knowledge and understanding in a commercial context, and partaking in international business.

Programme Outcomes

Knowledge and Understanding

A. Knowledge and understanding of:

1. Alternative models of management and international business
2. Most recent developments in relevant empirical work, business and management practices, and the international business environment
3. The international and cultural environments, and regulatory and ethical framework affecting international business and management.
4. The structure and practices of selected international business enterprises. Management within these enterprises
5. An understanding of the importance of international business in driving change in management practices and business cultures throughout the world.
6. Causes and nature of international differences in financial reporting.
7. Interpretation of financial statements in an international context.

Teaching/learning methods and strategies

Formal lectures, guest lectures from industry, discussions, individual and group presentation, group exercises, case studies, guided readings and guidance on key sources of reference material. Feed back and guidance are important elements complementing an emphasis on self -study

Assessment

Unseen examinations and coursework comprising of long essays. Seminar presentations are also used as a means of assessment in some modules.

Skills and other attributes

B. Intellectual skills – able to:

1. Structure, analyse, and evaluate theoretical issues, and practical business dynamics and challenges.
2. Think logically and analytically and to understand the difference between positive and normative statements.
3. Identify key business and management relationships and evaluate them with reference to practice
4. Comprehend the rapidly evolving state of management and international business knowledge and factors influencing both the change and the pace of change

Teaching/learning methods and strategies

Students are frequently challenged in all teaching situations to complete logical arguments, analyse problems and alternative strategies, and justify statements. Long essays, debate, group work, and presentations provide the principal vehicle for developing intellectual skills

Assessment

Unseen examinations and coursework, case study analysis, dissertation.

C. Practical skills – able to:

1. Evaluate current theoretical and empirical research in the field of study.
2. Evaluate alternative business strategies.
3. Evaluate the behaviour, culture and strategy of firms.
4. Effectively apply key professional skills learnt in classes to the business world.
5. Draw on knowledge to present arguments in the areas of financial markets, governance and reporting.
6. Evaluate alternative policies.
7. Interpret financial statements.
8. Perform calculations in certain areas.

Teaching/learning methods and strategies

Students are required to undertake and understand a wide range of reading, both of specific references and through researching their own sources of information. Discussion in lectures and seminars emphasises the use of statistical and empirical evidence and the strengths and weaknesses in alternative theories, methodologies, and international business practices.

Skills are achieved through lectures, seminars, presentations, case studies, and group exercises

Assessment

Long essays, presentations, and unseen examinations.

D. Transferable skills – able to:

1. Communicate effectively with a wide range of individuals using a variety of means.
2. Evaluate his/her own academic professional performance.
3. Utilise problem-solving skills in a variety of theoretical and practical situations.
4. Manage change effectively and respond to changing demands.
5. Take responsibility for personal and professional learning and development (personal Development Planning).
6. Manage time, prioritise workloads and manage personal emotions and stress.
7. Understand career opportunities and begin to plan a career path.
8. Information management skills. e.g. IT skills.

Teaching/learning methods and strategies

The presentation of well-researched written work is a fundamental element of the programme and requires the application of all the skills. This is reinforced by the breadth and depth of the syllabuses for each module and the highly structured system of deadlines for assessed work, and examinations, which develop the students' skills of time management. Oral skills are developed through lecture and seminar discussions and individual and group presentations.

Assessment

Unseen examinations and coursework.

Please note - This specification provides a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve and demonstrate if he/she takes full advantage of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information on the learning outcomes, content and teaching, learning and assessment methods of each module can be found in the module description and in the programme handbook. The University reserves the right to modify this specification in unforeseen circumstances, or where the process of academic development and feedback from students, quality assurance processes or external sources, such as professional bodies, requires a change to be made. In such circumstances, a revised specification will be issued.