Summary of programme aims

The programme aims to provide a framework, both practical and intellectual, for the development of a personal practice in Art with particular reference to students who have completed a Foundation Course in Art & Design.

Transferable skills

During the course of their studies at Reading, all students will be expected to enhance their academic and personal transferable skills in line with the University's Strategy for Learning and Teaching. In following this programme, students will have had the opportunity to develop such skills, in particular relating to and will have been encouraged to further develop and enhance the full set of skills through a variety of opportunities available outside their curriculum.

Within the Fine Art programme students will develop visual awareness and dexterity. They will extend their abilities in visual, oral and written communication including the use of presentational aids. Students will learn to identify and independently pursue their aims. Students will develop research skills including the ability to locate and assemble visual and written material, they will engage in evaluative analysis of visual and critical sources. They will acquire basic knowledge of a range of materials, tools, machinery and technological skills. Students will extend their experience of art, meeting deadlines, planning, team working, problem solving and career management.

Programme content

The profile which follows states which modules must be taken (the compulsory part), (together with optional Fine Art modules for Part 1).

Part 1 students must choose which additional modules they wish to take from within the department and the faculty to make 120 credits in Part 1.

The number of credits for each module is shown after its title.

Part 1 provides students with the opportunity to identify particular (individual) interests and concerns through practical engagement in their own studio spaces and to relate their studio work to relevant contemporary issues.

Part 2 allows students to continue with, and also to investigate, the interests developed in Part 1 including seminars and the lecture programmes.

Of the 120 credits in Part 2, five are taken up by Career Management Skills.

In particular Part 2 provides the opportunity to build on the intellectual and technical skills of the year through increasingly independent development of work in the studio and through an exploration of the discourse surrounding contemporary art and art theory.

Part 3 encourages the focused development of an individual body of work in the studio and the location of studio practice in relation to contemporary art and art theory.

Progression requirements

Part 1

Students must achieve an average mark of 40% in the 120 credits for this Examination and obtain a minimum of 40% in FA1SA.

Part 2

Students must achieve an average mark of 40% in the 120 credits taken and a mark of 40% in FA2SA.

Summary of teaching and assessment

Teaching is by tutorials, seminars, lectures and visits to museums and galleries.

Technical assistance and instruction occurs appropriately at the student's request.

The Contextual Study is supervised through tutorials with tutors.

In all studio modules assessment is by coursework selected and presented by the student. In Part 1 and in Part 2 studio modules, FA1SA and FA2SA there are two types of assessment, an Interim and a Part assessment.

Interim Assessments are formative and take place mid-module where a diagnostic mark is achieved. The Part Assessment occurs at the end of the module, in Part 2 the results contributing to the Final Degree classification.

At Part 3 assessment is by examination in the form of an exhibition.

Seminars, Lectures and Contextual Study are assessed by coursework. Full details are given in module descriptions.

The conventions for classification are included in the Programme Handbook but you should note that weighting for Part 2 and Part 3 is:

Part 2 30% (FA2SA Fine Art Studio 20%, FA2HRSA Contextual Seminar 10%) and Part 3 70% (60% FA3HSA Fine Art Studio 3, 10% FA3DISA Art Dissertation).

Admission requirements

Applications are sought from students who have completed a Foundation Course in Art and Design or its equivalent, in addition to GCE Advanced levels or appropriate alternative qualifications.

We recommend you contact our Admissions Tutor or Departmental Officer to discuss your individual circumstances and/or arrange a visit to the department.

All home students are interviewed with their portfolio of practical work.

Irish Leaving Certificate: BBBB to CCCC plus Foundation course

Admissions Tutor: Tina O'Connell/ Alun Rowlands

Support for students and their learning

University support for students and their learning falls into two categories. Learning support includes IT Services, which has several hundred computers, and the University Library, which across its three sites holds over a million volumes, subscribes to around 4,000 current periodicals, has a range of electronic sources of information and houses the Student Access to Independent Learning (S@il) computer-based teaching and learning facilities. There are language laboratory facilities both for those students studying on a language degree and for those taking modules offered by the Institution-wide Language Programme. Student guidance and welfare support is provided by Personal Tutors, School Senior Tutors, the Students' Union, the Medical Practice and the Student Services Directorate. The Student Services Directorate is housed in the Carrington Building and includes the Careers Advisory Service, the Disability Advisory Service, Accommodation Advisory Team, Student Financial Support, Counselling and Study Advisors. Student Services has a Helpdesk available for enquiries made in person or online (www.risisweb.reading.ac.uk), or by calling the central enquiry number on (0118) 378 5555. Students can get key information and guidance from the team of Helpdesk Advisers, or make an appointment with a specialist adviser; Student Services also offer drop-in sessions on everything from accommodation to finance. The Carrington Building is open between 8:30 and 17:30 Monday to Thursday (17:00 Friday and during vacation periods). Further information can be found in the Student website (www.reading.ac.uk/student).

Individual studio space is provided for every student. In addition, several bookable spaces are available for installation and time-based work. There are construction workshops and facilities for video and digital editing. There are directed visits to museums and galleries. Support for students in their studies is provided through the University's iLearn Academic Record. Each student is issued with a Programme Handbook.

Career prospects

In addition to working as artists, graduates in Fine Art have found employment in theatre, television, community services, art therapy, art writing, journalism, publishing, post production, curating, gallery and museum administration, and even popular music. A number of students proceed to postgraduate study or teacher training.

Opportunities for study abroad or for placements

There are opportunities to study abroad including; North America under the student exchange scheme at Rutgers University, Ottawa University, and Monash Australia, also an Erasmus exchange with L'Ecole des Beaux Arts, Dijon. Individual student interest in work experience and public exhibition of work is supported through staff advice and contacts.
