Summary of programme aims

The programme aims to provide a degree-level education in International Management and Business Administration, with a significant emphasis on Italian culture and a high level of understanding of written and spoken Italian. This programme is distinctive in its international business and culture aspects. At the same time it provides a good understanding of a range of key functional aspects of business which give students some exemptions from initial examinations by a number of professional bodies.

Transferable skills

During the course of their studies at Reading, all students will be expected to enhance their academic and personal transferable skills. In following this programme, students will have had the opportunity to develop such skills, in particular relating to communication, interpersonal skills, learning skills, numeracy, self-management, use of IT and problem-solving and will have been encouraged to further develop and enhance the full set of skills through a variety of opportunities available outside their curriculum.

Programme content

The following profile lists the compulsory modules, together with their credit size, for each Part. Students are required to take a total of 120 credits in each Part. Where the compulsory modules in a Part total less than 120 credits, students are required to select options containing sufficient credits to make up the shortfall. Any such options selected must be drawn from the options listed below for Parts 2 and 3; in Part 1 they can be drawn from anywhere in the University subject to any restriction which may be applied to particular module choices.

To progress to Part 2 a student must:

- (i) obtain an average mark of 40% across all Part 1 modules;
- (ii) obtain at least 40% in 100 credits including all compulsory modules;
- (iii) achieve not less than 35% in the remaining 20 credits

To gain a threshold performance at Part 2, a student shall normally be required to achieve:

- (i) a weighted average of 40% over 120 credits taken at Part 2;
- (ii) marks of at least 40% in individual modules amounting to not less than 80 credits; and
- (iii) marks of at least 30% in individual modules amounting to not less than 120 credits.

In order to progress from Part 2 to Part 3, a student must achieve a threshold performance

To progress from the Year Abroad to Part 3, students must achieve (i) a weighted average of 40% over the 120 Year Abroad credits; (ii) marks of at least 40% in ML3YSWA; and (iii) marks of at least 30% in ML2YL5.

In the final assessment, the weighting ratio between modules taken during Year 2, modules taken during the Year Abroad, and modules taken during Part 3 is:

Part 2 (Level 5) [22.2%]

Year Abroad (Level 5) [33.3%]

Part 3 (Level 6) [Year 4 - 44.4%]

1. Teaching is organised in modules. The delivery of material varies among modules, especially in the proportions of time allocated to lectures, and to classes and seminars. All modules involve coursework, which takes a variety of forms. Final assessment normally involves a written examination, and may also incorporate coursework marks;

3. In the Department of Italian, teaching is through seminars, lectures, essay tutorials and language classes. Over the programme as a whole, assessment will be conducted through a mixture of assessed essays and formal examination. The Credits from Italian University courses will derive from marks obtained in oral examinations set by the Italian university. The Oral in Italian and the Written and Oral Presentation will be examined at the beginning of Part 3.

4. The conventions for classification are included in the Programme Handbook but you should note that weighting between Part 2 (and Level 5 modules in the Year Abroad) and Part 3 (and Level 6 modules in the Year Abroad) for classification purposes is 33% and 67%.
5. Italian modules vary from the standard and coursework may amount to up to a maximum of 50%.

Admission requirements

Entrants to this programme are normally required to have obtained:

Grade B or better in English and Maths in GCSE; and achieved:

UCAS Tariff: AAB from 3 A Levels or . A minimum of three full A levels are required (including Latin or a modern language GCSE).

Support for students and their learning

University support for students and their learning falls into two categories. Learning support is provided by a wide array of services across the University, including: the University Library, the Careers, Placement and Experience Centre (CPEC), In-session English Support Programme, the Study Advice and Mathematics Support Centre teams, IT Services and the Student Access to Independent Learning (S@il) computer-based teaching and learning facilities. There are language laboratory facilities both for those students studying on a language degree and for those taking modules offered by the Institution-wide Language Programme. Student guidance and welfare support is provided by Personal Tutors, School Senior Tutors, the Students' Union, the Medical Practice and advisers in the Student Services Centre. The Student Services Centre is housed in the Carrington Building and offers advice on accommodation, careers, disability, finance, and wellbeing, academic issues (eg problems with module selection) and exam related queries. Students can get key information and guidance from the team of Helpdesk Advisers, or make an appointment with a specialist adviser; Student Services also offer drop-in sessions and runs workshops and seminars on a range of topics. For more information see www.reading.ac.uk/student

Support for students in their studies is provided through the University's Personal Academic Record (PAR) scheme, in which students meet their personal tutors regularly to review their progress. The School Handbooks issued to Part 1 and to degree course students provide extensive information on resources and study skills. The Access Point for Individual Language Learning (APILL) contains a range of audio and audio-visual materials to promote self-study in languages, together with facilities for watching Italian television by satellite. The University Library is particularly well stocked with works relating to many different aspects of Italian and Classical culture and the Faculty possesses a video suite to support cinema studies. The Departmental Libraries contains a range of reference works which can be used by students and offer congenial study spaces. Henley Business School has a resource room with reference books and computers for student use.

Career learning

Career prospects

In recent years students who have followed this programme have gone into jobs in the banking, finance, accounting and associated industries. These include large international management and marketing consultancies, international retailers and fashion houses, research in top rated universities in the USA, Italy and the UK, and professional positions in other service industries.

Graduates on this programme may apply for exemptions from relevant professional examinations of the Chartered Institute of Marketing, the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants and the Institute of Chartered Accountants. Students on this programme may become student members of the Institute of Management.

Opportunities for study abroad

As part of the degree programme students have the opportunity to study abroad at an institution with which the University has a valid agreement. Students go to one of our partner Business Schools in Italy. They must take the units and examinations in the institutions as agreed by the Director of Studies and the Italian Department Co-ordinator. The assessment of student achievements in examinations and coursework in the partner universities, whether by written or oral examinations, is taken into account as one classifying unit.

Placement opportunities

Students may choose to seek a placement in a company in an Italian speaking country for the year abroad. If they are successful in finding a suitable placement which is authorised by the Director of Studies, students must work for a minimum of seven months full time. Assessment is based on a work placement report (about 5000 words) and a report by the employer. Further details are available from the Director of Studies.

Programme Outcomes

The programme aims to:

Sensitivity to cultural difference informs the whole programme and, together with the development of self-motivation and self-reliance, is greatly encouraged by the Year Abroad. Career management is taught through a distinct module at Part 2.

Assessment

Assessments include a wide variety of methods such as tutor feedback, critiques of presentations, interactive discussion in groups. Group feedback and peer assessment.

In Italian - Skills 1-2 are assessed through coursework and examinations, including the examinations in Italy. The location of information forms part of the activity involved in the dissertation, but word-processing skills are not formally assessed. Skill 4 is not directly assessed. There are strict, clearly-defined penalties for lateness in handing in assessed work and for plagiarism.

Please note - This specification provides a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve and demonstrate if he/she takes full advantage of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information on the learning outcomes, content and teaching, learning and assessment methods of each module can be found in the module description and in the programme handbook. The University reserves the right to modify this specification in unforeseen circumstances, or where the process of academic development and feedback from students, quality assurance process or external sources, such as professional bodies, requires a change to be made. In such circumstances, a revised specification will be issued.
