Programme information and content

The MAAL is designed as a programme of continuing development for language professionals, especially those working in the field of language teaching. Core modules are offered in language description and analysis, language pedagogy and language learning, and students are given an up-to-date knowledge of principles and issues of importance within the broad field of study of language in use. Through a choice of options, students also have access to a further range of pedagogic and non-pedagogic-related areas of interest. They receive a thorough grounding that will help them to develop their career in a wide range of language related professions.

Module information

The programme comprises of 180 credits, allocated across a range of compulsory and optional modules. Compulsory modules are listed.

Compulsory modules

Module	Name	Credits	Level
LSMDIS	Dissertation	60	M
LSMFLS	Foundations of Language Study	20	M
LSMRDM	Research Design Methods	20	M
LSMSL	Second Language Learning Principles	20	M
LSMSOC	Sociolinguistics	20	M

The remaining credits will be taken from the list of optional modules from the School of Literature and Languages or from an approved list of modules from across the University.

Part-time or flexible modular arrangements

The programme is offered on a part-time basis, normally over a period of up to 24 months. The structure of these arrangements is as follows:

Year 1: 2 compulsory taught modules and 1-2 option modules;

Year 2: 2 compulsory taught modules (to include LSMRDM), 1-2 option modules and the dissertation module.

Additional costs of the programme

During your programme of study you will incur some additional costs.

Where applicable, core textbooks recommended for student purchase may cost around £15 to £25 per module; there may be other books/resources which you would find it convenient to buy. Some books may be available second-hand, which will reduce costs. A wide range of resources to support your curriculum, including textbooks, more specialist studies, and electronic resources, are available through the library.

Printing and photocopying facilities are available on campus at a cost per A4 page of £0.05 (black and white) and £0.30 (colour). Essential costs in this area will be low as most coursework is submitted electronically.

Optional modules

The optional modules available can vary from year to year. An indicative list of the range of optional modules for your Programme is set out in the Further Programme Information. Details of any additional costs associated with the optional modules, will be made available to you prior to the beginning of the programme. Entry to optional modules will be at the discretion of the University and subject to availability. Although the University tries to ensure you are able to take the optional modules in which you have expressed interest this cannot be guaranteed.
