This document sets out key information about your Programme and forms part of your Terms and Conditions with the University of Reading.

Awarding Institution	University of Reading
Teaching Institution	University of Reading
Length of Programme	4 years
Accreditation	Accredited directly by each of the professional accountancy bodies.

Programme information and content
This programme aims to provide a degree-level education in accounting and finance. The study of accounting and finance progresses through the programme so that students obtain a critical grasp of core theory along with thorough knowledge, and skills of application and analysis related to these disciplines. This study embeds international and ethical considerations widely, with optional modules grounding the study of accounting and finance in a broader understanding of the business environment. The programme offers the opportunity to apply for credit for prior learning for a range of professional accounting papers. As a result the programme will prepare students for professional leadership in their chosen employment sector.
Part 1:	Introduces students to the core fundamentals of financial and management accounting, finance and financial markets, supplementing this with broader business-related modules.
Part 2:	Builds on the core knowledge gained at Part 1, with compulsory modules to develop deeper knowledge and application of that knowledge in the core strands of financial accounting, management accounting and finance.
Placement/Study abroad year:	One year work placement aims at developing professional practice skills that form the basis for students' future careers, providing hands-on experience in professional practice, or a related career in accountancy or finance, developing transferable skills and overall improving graduate prospects.
Part 3:	Enables students to deepen their theoretical and practical knowledge, application, and critical evaluation of the core strands, and optional modules provide flexibility for students to explore areas of particular interest. Students will also continue to enhance transferable skills.

Optional modules:

The optional modules available can vary from year to year. An indicative list of the range of optional modules for your Programme is set out in the Further Programme Information. Details of optional modules for each part, including any Additional Costs associated with the optional modules, will be made available to you prior to the beginning of the Part in which they are to be taken and you will be given an opportunity to express interest in the optional modules that you would like to take. Entry to optional modules will be at the discretion of the University and subject to availability and may be subject to pre-requisites, such as completion of another module. Although the University tries to ensure you are able to take the optional modules in which you have expressed interest this cannot be guaranteed.

Additional costs of the programme

Costs are indicative, but will vary according to module choice and are subject to inflation and other price fluctuations.

During your programme of study you will incur some additional costs.

For textbooks and similar learning resources, we recommend that you budget between RM1,000 to RM1,500 a year. Some books may be available second-hand, which will reduce costs. A range of resources to support your curriculum, including textbooks and electronic resources, are available through the LRC. Reading lists and module specific costs are listed on the individual module descriptions.

Placement opportunities

The one-year placement is a compulsory part of the programme at Part 3. This provides you with the opportunity to undertake a credit-bearing placement as part of the Programme. You will be required to find and secure a placement opportunity with any Authorised Training

Employers of ICAEW or any legitimate business establishment, with the support of the University.

Teaching and learning delivery:

Teaching is through a combination of lectures, seminars and practical workshops.

Scheduled classes constitute approximately 240 hours for each part and will depend upon your module combination; however information about module contact hours can be located in the relevant module description.

Assessment

The programme will mainly be assessed through a combination of written examinations and coursework, although other methods may be used. Information about module assessment can be located in the relevant module descriptions.

Accreditation details

Accreditation details

Students are required to achieve the ICAEW pass mark for ICAEW accredited modules, as set out in individual module description forms.

University-wide progression requirements:
