Programme information and content

The programme provides a thorough postgraduate education in the analysis of business both at firm and industry level. Core modules provide detailed and up-to-date introductions to Business Economics, focusing particularly on industrial economics. These modules (and supporting specialist options) provide the techniques and evidence to understand how industries are structured, how firms behave within them and the impact of these factors on the performance of firms. The core modules also provide coverage of research methods and include a dissertation. Optional modules allow further opportunities for specialisation.

Module information

The programme comprises of 180 credits, allocated across a range of compulsory and optional modules. Compulsory modules are listed.

Compulsory modules

Module	Name	Credits	Level
ECM001	Introduction to Econometric Analysis	0	M
ECM101	Microeconomic Policy	20	M
ECM604	Econometrics 1	20	M
ECM610	Dissertation	60	M
ECM620	Economics of Corporate Strategy	20	M
ECM621	Topics in Business Economics	20	M

The remaining credits will be taken from a list of optional modules from the School of Politics, Economics and International Relations, or from an approved list of modules from across the University.

Part-time or flexible modular arrangements

The programme may be studied part-time over two consecutive years. Dissertations are submitted at the end of the second year of study.

Additional costs of the programme

Students are encouraged to discuss the purchase of textbooks or other resources with the module convenor before purchasing. Some books may be available second-hand, which will reduce costs. A range of resources to support your curriculum, including textbooks, electronic resources and computer facilities are available through the library and through both the Department of Economics and the Department of Politics and International Relations.

Printing and photocopying facilities are available on campus at a cost per A4 page of £0.05 (black and white) and £0.30 (colour). Essential costs in this area will be low as most coursework is submitted electronically.

Students will need to bear in mind the potential for associated travel costs if undertaking a placement module.

Optional modules

The optional modules available can vary from year to year. An indicative list of the range of optional modules for your Programme is set out in the Further Programme Information. Details of any additional costs associated with the optional modules will be made available to you prior to the beginning of the programme. Entry to optional modules will be at the discretion of the University and subject to availability. Although the University tries to ensure that you are able to take the optional modules in which you have expressed interest this cannot be guaranteed.

Placement opportunities

There are no placement opportunities on this programme.
