Programme information and content

The programme aims to provide a thorough postgraduate education in accounting for graduates who wish to understand how businesses use accounting and financial information for decision making purposes, how data analytics is used in the process, and the results of those decisions are communicated and evaluated in an international and institutional context. The compulsory modules provide an analytical and integrated study of accounting, financial management and digital business combining a conceptual and theoretical approach with an emphasis on application to relevant practical problem-solving scenarios. Students will learn to evaluate alternative theories and methodologies and to make judgments on their applicability to complex issues where there is incomplete information. As a result students will enhance their employability in their related first-degree discipline or in any general business management role. The programme will also add to students' employability in the more specialised accounting or finance management domain of business, or in an accounting and finance institution. The programme will also serve as a basis for further academic study in the accounting, finance or data analytics related disciplines.

Module information

The programme comprises of 180 credits, allocated across a range of compulsory and optional modules. Compulsory modules are listed.

Compulsory modules

Module	Name	Credits	Level
ACM008	Accounting for Sustainability	20	M
ACM010	International Financial Accounting	20	M
ACM011	Advanced International Financial Reporting and Analysis	20	M
MMM001	International Strategic Management	20	M

Students must choose option modules so as to complete a total of 180 credits. This will include a project, a dissertation or a work placement core option.

Part-time or flexible modular arrangements

This programme is only available on a full-time basis.

Additional costs of the programme

There are no textbooks which you must buy and students are encouraged to discuss the purchase of textbooks or other resources with the module convenor before purchasing. Some books may be available second-hand, which will reduce costs.

A range of resources to support your curriculum, including textbooks, electronic resources and computer facilities, are available through the Central Library and the Business School Academic Resource Centre.

Printing and photocopying facilities are available on campus at a cost per A4 page of £0.05 (black and white) and £0.30 (colour). Essential costs in this area will be low as most coursework is submitted electronically. Costs are indicative and may vary according to optional modules chosen and are subject to inflation and other price fluctuations.

Optional modules

A complete list of option modules is available from the Programme Director, and a list of current options can be found in the relevant Programme Handbook. There is no guarantee that in any one year all modules will be available. New option modules may also be added.

Placement opportunities

There are currently no opportunities to study abroad or to undertake a placement.

Teaching and learning delivery

Teaching is organised in modules. The delivery of material varies among the modules, especially in the proportion of time allocated to lectures, classes and seminars. All modules involve coursework, which takes a variety of forms reflecting the aims of the module. Final assessment of the modules normally includes an examination and coursework. However, there are exceptions, with some modules based only on coursework. A project or dissertation supervisor is appointed for each student.

Total study hours for your programme will be 1800 hours. The contact hours for your programme will depend upon your module combination; an average for a typical set of modules on this programme is 292 hours. In addition to your scheduled contact hours, you will be expected to undertake guided independent study. Information about module contact hours and the amount of independent study which a student is normally expected to undertake for a module is indicated in the relevant module description.

Accreditation details

The programme has accreditation of Chartered Institute of Management Accounting (CIMA) which provides for exemptions from four professional exams BA1 - BA4.

All Henley Business School programmes are accredited by the EFMD Quality Improvement System and the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB)
