Programme information and content

The programme is for graduates of any discipline who are interested in a career in construction cost management or quantity surveying. Cost management comprises every aspect of a project from concept through design, production and occupancy. It involves new projects, refurbishment projects, heritage restoration and the maintenance of all built facilities. Students will study management principles, cost, time, and quality management, with the legal and contractual aspects of project delivery. The programme has an international perspective and is open to applicants who are considering a career in cost management with public and private sector clients, consultants or contractors in the building and civil engineering sectors, including oil and gas.

Module information

The programme comprises of 180 credits, allocated across a range of compulsory and optional modules. Compulsory modules are listed.

Compulsory modules

Module	Name	Credits	Level
CEM104	Construction Cost Management: Principles and Practice	40	M
CEM10A	Research skills	20	M
CEM10B	Research dissertation	40	M
CEM202	Construction Project Management	10	M
CEM206	Construction Contract Law	10	M
CEM228	Construction Economics	10	M

CEM238	Construction Cost Engineering	10	M
--------	-------------------------------	----	---

The remaining credits will be taken from the list of optional modules from the School of Built Environment for this programme. The phrase ‘compulsory modules’ relates to core modules that define the MSc qualification.

Part-time or flexible modular arrangements

This programme may be taken on a flexible-modular basis, normally over 24 months for September starts or 33 months for January starts, up to a maximum of 63 months. January starts involve spreading the period of study over three academic years, with a view to graduating in December of the third year. All 10-credit modules will be provided in one-week attendance periods at the University.

Additional costs of the programme

Safety boots are required for site visits. These need to conform with British safety standards and cost approximately £50. These are not provided by the University and students should purchase them ready to use at the beginning of the programme.

Where applicable, core textbooks recommended for student purchase may cost around £15 to £25 per module; there may be other books/resources which you would find it convenient to buy. Some books may be available second-hand, which will reduce costs. A wide range of resources to support your curriculum, including textbooks, more specialist studies, and electronic resources, are available through the library.

Printing and photocopying facilities are available on campus at a cost per A4 page of £0.05 (black and white) and £0.30 (colour). Essential costs in this area will be low as most coursework is submitted electronically.

Costs are indicative and may vary according to optional modules chosen and are subject to inflation and other price fluctuations.

The estimates were calculated in 2022.

Optional modules

The optional modules available can vary from year to year. An indicative list of the range of optional modules for your Programme is set out in the Further Programme Information. Details of any additional costs associated with the optional modules, will be made available to you prior to the beginning of the programme. Entry to optional modules will be at the discretion of the University and subject to availability. Although the University tries to ensure you are able to take the optional modules in which you have expressed interest this cannot be guaranteed.

Placement opportunities

There are no formal arrangements for study abroad or placements.
