Programme information and content

The programme is designed to equip graduates with the knowledge and skills to embark on a career as an entrepreneur or manager within the Film Industry. The Business modules aim to develop in individuals an integrated and critically aware understanding of entrepreneurship and management in the context of the creative industries. The Film modules exist to allow graduates the opportunity to develop and enhance their technical and critical skills in film, strengthening their credentials as professionals in the creative sector.

Module information

The programme comprises of 180 credits, allocated across a range of compulsory and optional modules. Compulsory modules are listed.

Compulsory modules

| Module | Name | Credits | Level |
|--------|---|---------|-------|
| MMM087 | Management in Creative and Cultural Organisations | 20 | M |
| MMM110 | Entrepreneurial Management for Creative Artists | 20 | M |

In addition to the Creative Enterprise compulsory modules above:

Students must take 60 credits from the list of modules related to Film, as specified by the School of Arts and Communication Design, and a module concerning a dissertation on Film or a work of Film practice.

The remaining 20 credits will be made up of optional modules from a list provided by the Henley Business School and the School of Law.

Additional costs of the programme

During your programme of study you will incur some additional costs. These vary in relation to your choice of modules and the materials you may choose to use for practical work and/or opportunities to engage with industry practice (e.g. exhibitions, festivals, performances and screenings).

Module FTMFF Film Programming and Film Festivals runs in the Spring Term and usually includes a trip to a film festival in Europe. We advise students to join this trip on their own expenses, though this is not compulsory and has no bearing on their marks.

Costs are indicative and may vary according to optional modules chosen and are subject to inflation and other price fluctuations.

The estimates were calculated in 2022.

Optional modules

The optional modules available can vary from year to year. An indicative list of the range of optional modules for your Programme is set out in the Further Programme Information. Details of any additional costs associated with the optional modules, will be made available to you prior to the beginning of the programme. Entry to optional modules will be at the discretion of the University and subject to availability. Although the University tries to ensure you are able to take the optional modules in which you have expressed interest this cannot be guaranteed.

Teaching and learning delivery

Teaching is organised in modules. The method of delivery varies among modules, especially in terms of the proportions of time allocated to lectures, seminars, case studies and practical work. Teaching may also include engagement with professional practice through collections, exhibitions, performance, screenings and other teaching methods as applicable to the pathways.

Total study hours for your programme will be 1800 hours. The contact hours for your programme will depend upon your module combination; a minimum for a typical set of modules on this programme is – 200 hours. In addition to your scheduled contact hours, you will be expected to undertake guided independent study.

Information about module contact hours and the amount of independent study which a student is normally expected to undertake for a module is indicated in the relevant module description.
