Programme information and content

The programme equips students with the interdisciplinary knowledge and practical skills essential for a successful career in real estate development and planning. It offers a solid foundation for understanding market and development processes in the built environment. Emphasising interdisciplinary working, the curriculum provides you with a structured but flexible learning framework that includes a combination of compulsory and optional modules.

Part 1:	Introduces you to the fundamental principles of core subject areas including economics, data analysis, law, property rights and planning, real estate valuation, contemporary issues and ethics and sustainable development. Additional modules on contemporary issues in real estate and planning and ethics and sustainable development enable you to develop skills and apply the knowledge gained in this year.
Part 2:	Provides you with a deeper knowledge of core topic areas and a more specific application of those areas to real estate and planning practice. Areas covered include real estate valuation, real estate and urban economics, and real estate and planning law and planning theory and practice. An additional module in entrepreneurship and technology will enable you to further develop your skills in teamworking and to apply the knowledge gained through the taught modules. An elective module enables you some degree of flexibility over what you learn in this second year.

Placement/Study abroad year:	Study abroad year: Students can choose to transfer straight into Part 3 or undertake an additional year studying in an overseas University.
Part 3:	The core element develops advanced knowledge of development appraisal and finance, development process and urban design in the development process. A project module in development and planning will complement your learning with in-depth project work, while optional modules will allow you to tailor your learning to specific interests.

Programme Learning Outcomes - BSc Real Estate Development and Planning

During the course of the Programme, you will have the opportunity to develop a range of skills, knowledge and attributes (known as learning outcomes) For this programme, these are:

	Learning outcomes
1	Analyse a range of evidence and knowledges to develop planning and policy frameworks that set out a positive vision for the future of a place, including the diverse range of groups within it.
2	Demonstrate effective research and appraisal skills through data collection, quantitative and qualitative analysis, weighing evidence to reach sound conclusions and the ability to communicate these conclusions in a variety of ways.
3	Demonstrate the implications of different principles for why and how we plan, including for citizen involvement and the implications of planning decisions for multiple geographical and time scales.
4	Evaluate what it means to be a real estate development and planning professional in multiple settings, including independent professional judgement and working collaboratively with a diversity of other built environment professionals.
5	Critically assess the impacts of planning and development on the natural environment, including the importance of climate change mitigation and adaptation, and the complex impacts of environmental damage on different groups.
6	Recognise the need for continuing professional learning and development, including an ability to autonomously reflect on future self-development needs and possible career paths within real estate and planning.
7	Consider a range of issues within the context of legal frameworks, political arenas, decision-making processes, and collaboration with relevant stakeholders, including using professional judgement to generate clear recommendations.
8	Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of a chosen theme(s) in real estate development and planning.
9	Analyse different elements of the development process, including principles of good placemaking, viability and appraisal, and their implications for environmental, social and economic sustainability.
10	Demonstrate the skills and qualities of a professional, including reflexivity, communication and the ability to work collaboratively.
11	Evaluate ethical practice challenges including balancing between conflicting obligations to clients, politicians and society and the environment

You will be expected to engage in learning activities to achieve these Programme learning outcomes. Assessment of your modules will reflect these learning outcomes and test how far you have met the requirements for your degree.

To pass the Programme, you will be required to meet the progression or accreditation and award criteria set out below.

In addition to the learning outcomes stated above if you are on a placement or study abroad programme you will have the opportunity to develop the following learning outcome:

Additional learning outcomes

Study Abroad

By the end of the Study Abroad Programme, students will have adapted to international study contexts in order to achieve the required academic outcomes determined by the host institution.

Placement opportunities

Study Abroad:

You may be provided with the opportunity to undertake a Study Abroad during your Programme. This is subject to you meeting academic conditions detailed in the Programme Handbook, including obtaining the relevant permissions from your School, and the availability of a suitable Study Abroad. If you undertake a Study Abroad, further arrangements will be discussed and agreed with you. A Study Abroad at the University of Reading Malaysia - UoRM (BSc Real Estate) - requires no alteration to your enrolment; all compulsory modules for RICS accreditation in the UK are co-convened by academic staff at UoRM.

Placement Year:

The Department of Real Estate and Planning does not provide a sandwich course. However, you may be provided with the opportunity to undertake employment. This is subject to you meeting academic conditions detailed in the Programme Handbook, including obtaining the relevant permissions from your School, as well as the suitability of the employment opportunity.

Optional modules:

The optional modules available can vary from year to year. An indicative list of the range of optional modules for your programme can be found online in the Course Catalogue. Details of optional modules for each part, including any additional costs associated with the optional modules, will be made available to you prior to the beginning of the Part in which they are to be taken and you will be given an opportunity to express interest in the optional modules that you would like to take. Entry to optional modules will be at the discretion of the University and subject to availability and may be subject to pre-requisites, such as completion of another module. Although the University tries to ensure you are able to take the optional modules in which you have expressed interest this cannot be guaranteed.

Teaching and learning delivery:

You will be taught primarily through a mixture of lectures, tutorials and seminars, depending on the modules you choose. Some modules may include group work.

Elements of your programme will be delivered via digital technology.

The scheduled teaching and learning activity hours and amount of technology enhanced learning activity for your programme will depend upon your module combination. In addition, you will undertake some self-scheduled teaching and learning activities, designed by and/or involving staff, which give some flexibility for you to choose when to complete them. You will also be expected to undertake guided independent study. Information about module study hours including contact hours and the amount of independent study which a student is normally expected to undertake for a module is indicated in the relevant module description.

Accreditation details

Henley Business School is accredited by the EQUIS and AACSB. BSc Real Estate Development and Planning is accredited by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (graduate membership).

Assessment

The programme will be assessed through a combination of written examinations, coursework (including class tests) and oral examinations. Further information is contained in the individual module descriptions.

Progression

Part 1

To achieve a threshold performance at Part 1, a student will normally be required to:

- (i) Obtain an overall weighted average of 40% over 120 credits taken in Part 1; and
- (ii) Obtain a mark of at least 40% in individual modules amounting to not less than 80 credits taken in Part 1; and
- (iii) Obtain marks of at least 30% in modules amounting to 120 credits. (A Fail in a Pass/Fail module will be treated as not meeting the minimum threshold requirement for progression or classification. Pass/fail modules are excluded from weighted average calculations but must be passed to avoid failure of the Part or degree.)

In order to progress from Part 1 to Part 2, a student must achieve a threshold performance.

The achievement of a threshold performance at Part 1 qualifies a student for a Certificate of Higher Education if they leave the University before completing the subsequent Part.

Students considering transferring to another programme should seek guidance from their designated Support Centre in the first instance.

Part 2

To achieve a threshold performance at Part 2, a student shall normally be required to:

- (i) Obtain a weighted average of 40% over 120 credits taken in Part 2; and
- (ii) Obtain marks of at least 40% in individual modules amounting to at least 80 credits taken in Part 2; and
- (iii) Obtain marks of at least 30% in individual modules amounting to at least 120 credits. (A Fail in a Pass/Fail module will be treated as not meeting the minimum threshold requirement for progression or classification. Pass/fail modules are excluded from weighted average calculations but must be passed to avoid failure of the Part or degree.)

In order to progress from Part 2 to Part 3, a student must achieve a threshold performance.

The achievement of a threshold performance at Part 2 qualifies a student for a Diploma of Higher Education if they leave the University before completing the subsequent Part.

Placement/Study Abroad Year

Students are required to pass the professional placement year/study abroad year in order to progress on the programme which incorporates the professional placement year/study abroad year. Students who fail the professional placement year/study abroad year transfer to the non-placement year version of the programme.

Classification

Bachelor's degrees

The University's honours classification scheme is based on the following:

Mark	Interpretation
70% - 100%	First class
60% - 69%	Upper Second class
50% - 59%	Lower Second class
40% - 49%	Third class
35% - 39%	Below Honours Standard
0% - 34%	Fail

The weighting of the Parts/Years in the calculation of the degree classification is:

Three year programmes:

Part 2: one-third

Part 3: two-thirds

Four year programmes, including Study abroad / Placement year

Part 2: one-third

Study abroad / Placement year: Year abroad / Placement year not included in the classification

Part 3: two-thirds

Students who obtain a 2:2 final classification in this programme will have the option to continue onto a relevant Masters programme offered by the university. Students will be informed about the name of the Masters programme during Part 3 of the programme. Students will notify the university whether they want to continue onto the Masters programme or not, and those who obtain a 2:2 final classification on this programme will be guaranteed a place on the Masters programme.

Details of the classification method is given in detail in the Assessment Handbook under:

- Section 17: Awards (Bachelor's), or
- Section 18: Awards (Integrated Master's programmes). Students who do not progress to Part 4 of the Integrated Master's will normally be subject to the method detailed under Section 17: Awards (Bachelor's)

Please note that there may be a specific version of the above for your year of entry.

Additional costs of the programme

During your programme of study, you may incur some additional costs.

Subject to your module choice, you may be required to purchase sundry materials (i.e., printing). Many students find it helpful to have their own personal computing facilities though there are central facilities available.

Costs are indicative and may vary according to optional modules chosen and are subject to inflation and other price fluctuations. Estimates were calculated in 2026.

Students may consider purchasing a laptop to help support their learning. Information on recommended device specifications can be found on the DTS Student Hub.

For further information about your Programme please refer to the Programme Handbook and the relevant module descriptions, which are available at <http://www.reading.ac.uk/module/>. The Programme Handbook and the relevant module descriptions do not form part of your Terms and Conditions with the University of Reading.
